Dave Lewis

Director,
BC Forest Safety Council

DAVE LEWIS, RPF, is a member of the Board of Directors of the BC Forest Safety Council, representing the Truck Loggers Association where he is Executive Director.

Dave completed a forestry degree from UBC, then went to work for a major licensee in Gold River. He later owned a forest engineering company, served as the town's mayor for one term, worked on a biomass power development and conducted fishing charters in the summer. Dave tries to bring a community focus to the job of representing independent forest contractors on the coast.

Dave is an entrepreneur at heart, having started his first business at the age of 17 and worked for himself most of his working life.
