MARYANNE ARCAND is a member of the Board of Directors of the BC Forest Safety Council, representing the Central Interior Logging Association where she serves as Executive Director, Member Services.

MaryAnne is the former Director of the Council's Forestry TruckSafe program and brings this unique perspective to the Board of Directors.

She joined the Council in 2005, bringing a passion for road safety due to the loss of her teenage sister in a road crash. The family business served the logging industry in the Williams Lake and Quesnel area for more than 35 years.

MaryAnne's background is in the social services, mainly public health, safety and substance abuse, and primarily with First Nations. She holds an Associate Arts degree in social work, a Small Business Management Diploma, and a BA degree in psychology.

Her work has brought MaryAnne provincial and regional safety and other awards, and she is proud of being named a "Knight of the Road" by the North American Trucking Association.
